

One day workshop on Fire and safety

Fire and safety class conducted on 14-09-15 in civil department. There was class session with respect to construction of buildings and safety aspects followed by types Fire extinguishers available and demonstration on the same.

Afternoon session was of demonstrating fire extinguisher equipment fitted with boom and also other types of fire fighting techniques.

This was attended by the Principal, HOD, Staff and students of 4th year civil engineering.

