More about Apis

Python coding language has to be included in the academics with suitable credits.

Any other valuable suggestions to the college

17 responses

No

Nothing as such

Take care of diploma students as they are late to the college and need some support. It's a personal experience..

Would be better if provided with more practical knowledge about the subjects.

None

Practical teaching should be increased rather then pen and book stuff. Because when we join the company handson things matter the most.

It's fantastic

Please provide bus facility for the localities as it was before.

More practical and application base subject addition in curicullum

More hands on sessions would be good

Nil

Give more time nd focus to teach programming language
