

SDM College of Engineering and Technology, Dharwad
Department of Electronics and Communication Engineering

A brief report on stakeholders' feedback for design and review of syllabus

The department has practice of collecting alumni feedback in design and review of syllabus. Alumni are members in Board of Studies in department. They review the syllabus and give suggestions for modifications. The department implements the same.

The department has practice of collecting stakeholders' feedback in various dimensions. Vision, mission, Program Outcomes (PO), Program Specific Outcomes (PSO), Program Educational Objectives (PEO) are drawn by way of conducting workshops. The department collects feedback during the visits of the eminent personalities to the department about the definition of POs / PSO, mapping these to the various courses, assessment plan.

It is observed that they have given feedback which has helped the department to improve its academic activities. The improvement is noticed in the form of improvement in attainment of PO, students' performance, placement records.
